THE NEGRO EXODUS. - A large number of negroes have arrived at St. Louis recently from Vicksburg and other points in Mississippi and Louisiana, under the impression, as they assert, that they would be provided with mesns of subsistence while there, and free transportation to Kansas, where, on arrival, they are to re-ocive lands from the Government, together with money, mules, plowe, &c. Several hundred, perhaps more than a thousand, have already strived, most of them in a destitute condition, and 600 more are expected. As no such provision as above stated has been made for these people, they having evidently been gross. ly deceived for some malicious purpose, and in view of all the circumstances in the case, Mayor Overstolz has issued a proclamation warning all persons against coming to St. Louis without money to support themselves and to pay their fire to their destination. No employment can be obtained there, and there must, of necessity, be much suffering and destitution among these people. Two or three hundred of them had money enough to reach Kansas City, and have started for that point. The board of health of St. Louis held a meeting to consider the question, and it was at first thought that all the destitute should be sent to the quarantine station, where they could be sheltered and fed, but it was finally concluded to take no action io the matter at present. The railroad and steamboat companies disclaim hav. ing had anything to do with the affair, and the Ancher Line have offered to take the negroes backs on their boats free. The matter is as-suming great importance, and what the end will be no one can now tell. Many of the negroes seem to be in comfortable circumstances. The remainder are in charge of the Colored Benevolent Society, and will be cared for until some other disposition can be made of them. MONTICELLO, the home of the illustrious states. man, patriot and philosopher, Thomas Jefferson, is to be sold at nuction on the 20th inst., by order of the Circuit Court of Richmond ity. It has been seld twice since the death of Mr. Jefferson. First by the joint deed of his daughter, Mrs. Martha Randolph, and her son, Col. Thomas J. Randolph, as Executor, on the 1st day of November 1830 to Dr. Jas. T. Barciay for $7,000. Then there were 552 acres of land attached. The second sale was probably made in 1834, recorded in 1836, with 218 seres, Captaio Uriah P. Levy, of the U. S. Navy, resident of New York City, became the purchaser at $2,700, and it has remaine in his estate up to this time. He died previous to the close of the late civil contest. By his last will be gave it to the United States with sufficent funds to establish a free school for the sons of Warrant officers of the United States Navy; the widow of Captaia Levy and other heirs contested the will, and it was set aside, and the bequest to the United States declared invalid. The proceeds of the sale on the 20th instant is to be distributed among the proper heirs of Captain Levy's estate. On the asseesor's book in this county, the estate (218 acros) is rated at $4,360. The State tax is $27,00, the county and school tax is at $20 .-89. Total taxes yearly $47.89 Ecquiries from various sections of the United States are received here asking about

PASTORAL LETTER FROM BISHOP GILMOER .- . The Right Rev. Bishop Gilmour, of Cleveland, has issued a pastoral letter to the clergy of his diocess, which condemns the Irish World, published in New York, for being antagonistic to true Catholie principles ; condemrs labor unions for their scorecy; forbids Catholic parents, under threats of excommunication, from sending their children to the public schools where Catholic perochial schools are easy of access, and gives the Hibernians a severe reprimend for not sllowing the priests to set as their spiritual advisors. The Bisbop urges upon Catholics the necessity of subscriting to the discosan Catholic jourcal in preference to all others, and repeats his orders to young Catholics not to marry outside of their religious faith. His letter couclades with important suggestions as to funerals, &c.
